Pen
underwriting

Cover for your hazardous motor and non-motor risks

Pen have been underwriting motor and non-motor business in Ireland (originally under our legacy brand OAMPS) for nearly twenty years.

Our focus is on understanding your clients' businesses and providing the right insurance for their needs including a 24/7/365 environmental response service in the event of spillages of hazardous liquids. All of our products are backed by A-rated capacity from insurers we have worked with for many years. Our quotes are exclusive and we work on a first come first served basis putting you in a strong position to win and retain clients; and because we don't ask for annual turnover and wagheroll declarations your client will find us easy to do business with too.
